Farmers' Strike

Farmers generally are getting in an ugly state of mind. Under prevailing prices for farm commodities they face the future with great uncertainty. Landlords are also indifferent and hesitate to finance labor for the making of another crop. Good farm labor is forced to compete with labor in the factory and on public work. Corn, wheat, tobacco and livestock selling below the cost of production, forces a curtailment of production for next year, a loss for this year's crops, which will result disastrously for many and decrease the value of all farm property. Farmers are organizing and pledging a curtailment of the tobacco crop, and binding themselves to hold the present crop as long as possible for better prices. These are wise conclusions, but no statesman has advanced a sound plan, which will provide credit for the farmer—to tide him over the storm of destruction which now envelops him. With a large crop of tobacco on hand, with credit pressing him for advances made to make it, he naturally hesitates to sacrifice himself and creditors by selling at a loss. Home banks will not be able to finance such enterprises. The Federal Reserve Banks ask six per cent for money. Borrowing banks cannot use it at that price. The Secretary of the U. S. Treasury issues government securities bearing 5 1/2 per cent free of all taxation. This drains the banks of all surplus and 3 and 4 per cent money. So there is nothing left to finance the business of farmers if the banks wanted to do so. In the meantime the millions of 50-cent dollars in the hands of war profiteers have more than doubled in value.

Something must be done to stabilize the products of the farm—the great American industry. The government knows every pound of tobacco sold and the needs of the world; let the farmers know how much of the weed is needed to satisfy the world's appetite and then through organization produce it at a remunerative price. What would happen if the farmer should strike and refuse to produce a crop not worth the cost of production on the market? Would the world judge him harshly if he openly judged enough for his own family?

Thirty-One Virginia Counties Now Have Red Cross Field Nurses—13 More Will Follow Suit

The report of the Virginia Red Cross supervising nurse made to the State Health Commission, discloses a gratifying development of the work jointly undertaken by the Red Cross and the State. Red Cross public health activities in the nursing field, as in others, have been to help and encourage the State health department in its primary efforts to improve the health of the people. In January last there were twelve Red Cross public health nurses in the State; now Mrs. Blanche Webb, the supervising nurse, reports that there are thirty-one.

All-gibby county has engaged two nurses, one at Covington and the other at Clifton Forge; and seventeen other counties have Red Cross nurses. These are Albemarle, Amherst, Bath, Botetourt, Chesterfield, Frederick, Halifax, Hanover, Henrico, Henry, Nansemond, Patrick, Roanoke, Rockbridge, Shenandoah, Tazewell and Washington. In addition to these counties in which nurses have already been placed through the active financial help of local chapters, there are thirteen other counties within which Red Cross funds have been collected and are available for the employment of nurses when the latter can be secured.

The Red Cross supervising nurse is attached to the State Department of Health and works in harmony with the department's supervising nurse. This arrangement, which has proved to be entirely satisfactory to the Red Cross and the State Department, has resulted in the banishment of misunderstandings and the avoidance of duplications.

Buckingham

Circuit court convened in regular session here on Nov. 10, instead of the 9th, which was the usual time. Cases of minor importance were heard on the first two days and Friday and Saturday were taken up with the trial of the case against Wyatt Pendleton, charged with killing young Barker. Mr. Aubrey E. Strode assisted by Wright, Moon and Wood appeared for the defense.

The case was given to the jury on Saturday evening and after some time taken in deliberation they brought in a verdict of murder in the second degree and fixed the penalty at ten years in the penitentiary. Counsel for defense gave notice of appeal, saying they would take the case to the higher court. The circuit court consented to allow bail in the sum of $6,000, in default of which the accused was sent to jail, where he is now confined. The defense in this case was based on self-defense.

An interesting civil case that was tried was that of Myers against the Merchants and Planters Bank of Dillwyn. It seems that the plaintiff Myers deposited $1000 with the bank to be applied as a first payment on a tract of land when he found that the title to the land was defective, and Myers claimed that the bank had paid back to him. Myers would be paid back to him. Myers refused, he said, to accept this and brought the suit as mentioned above, and got judgment for one thousand dollars with interest computed at 6 per cent from the time when he demanded his money. A young lawyer named Crowder, of Richmond, appeared for the plaintiff and Hubard and Boatwright appeared for the defense.

Judge Clarence J. Campbell, of Amherst, was here attending court and he not only made friends and made a good impression on the attorneys, but he won his case.

Other lawyers than those I have mentioned who were here were Messrs. Brock-Smith, Lee, Richmond, Moon & Pitts, Wood, Rogers, Brown; and perhaps others whom I do not know.

Horse traders and jockeys were here in great numbers and antiquated specimens of both horses and rules were changing hands, but very few sales were made; very good looking old plugs were offered as low as $5.

The payroll of teachers in Mayfield district for the month of October was over $1000. One neighbor told the other that he was paying hands $2.50 a day to get up his corn, and he was told that a man couldn't afford to pay that when corn was as low as it is. He said no, he could not afford it either, but he'd better had to pay that or let the corn remain in the field.

Miss Fannie White had a sale of personal property Saturday last. The Buckingham delegates to the State school conference will leave here on Tuesday, the 23rd. The C. & O. Railway gathered a racket of one third off the regular fare to delegates.

Forest View

Corn shuckings are now in progress; everybody is trying to get their corn under shelter. Plenty good things to eat. Mr. H. H. White returned to his home in Richmond last Tuesday, accompanied by Miss Fannie Ford, who will spend some time.

Mr. John Davis and daughter, Mrs. Ryland Martin, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. W. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ford spent a few days last week with his brother, Mr. Leonard Ford, near New London, Bedford county.

Mrs. Shickelton Hudson was taken to Lynchburg Hospital last week to be operated on for tumor. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Berkeley Nash, of Lynchburg, spent a few days last week with his father, Mr. Thos. Nash. He and his friends, Messrs. Frank Marshall and Allen Nash, enjoyed a little hunt.

Mr. Ernest Reed lost a fine horse last week by its jumping up on the pen and falling back, killing itself.

Miss Lelia Jones entertained a number of her friends a few nights ago with music, etc. Among those present from a distance were Messrs. Ethel and Sue Starnes, Mattie Jordan, Walter Jordan. Those from the neighborhood were Misses Maggie and Laura Nash, Edith and Evie Ford, Mattie and Otis Ferguson, Bessie Martin; Messrs. Pertie, Jesse and Oley Jones, Curtis Martin, Jim Bob Ford, Everett, Ferguson, Wallace and L. W. Woodson. All left at 11 o'clock, hoping Miss Lelia would entertain again soon.

Evergreen

Well, the Methodist conference is over and our beloved pastor, Rev. A. K. Lambdin, who has been with us for six years, has been sent to the Eastern Shore district. Our best wishes go with him. An oyster supper and bazaar was given by the Aid Society of the Methodist church here Saturday night. A neat little sum was realized and they wish to thank their friends for their help.

Mrs. Oscar Baker and two children, of Weston Forge, who have been visiting Mrs. W. B. Thomas, returned home Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Paulett, of Pamplin, was the week-end guest of her brothers, Messrs. O. O. and C. J. Paulett.

Miss Maude Young is visiting Miss Mattie Farrar.

The ladies of Trinity Methodist church, Red House, will serve an oyster and meat supper on the 26th—Thanksgiving—beginning at 2 o'clock. Go and enjoy the oysters and see the pretty girls and help a good cause, and you will come away feeling thankful that you went.

Mrs. Nora Glover, who has been visiting her sons, Messrs. Willie and Cawthron Glover, at Chevro, has returned to her home.

For Torpid Liver

"Black-Draught is, in my opinion, the best medicine on the market," states Mrs. K. H. White, of Kent, Ohio. She continues: "I had a pain in my chest, a feeling of tight, uncomfortable feeling, indigestion, biliousness, cold, coated tongue, dizziness, constipation, bitter taste, sleeplessness, lack of energy, pain in back, puffiness under the eyes—day or all of these symptoms often indicate that there is something the matter with your liver. You can't be too careful about the medicine you take. Be sure that the name, 'Theodore's Black-Draught,' is on the package. At all druggists."

Accept Only the Genuine.

For over seventy years this purely vegetable preparation has been found beneficial by thousands of persons suffering from effects of a torpid, or slow-acting liver. Indigestion, biliousness, cold, coated tongue, dizziness, constipation, bitter taste, sleeplessness, lack of energy, pain in back, puffiness under the eyes—day or all of these symptoms often indicate that there is something the matter with your liver. You can't be too careful about the medicine you take. Be sure that the name, 'Theodore's Black-Draught,' is on the package. At all druggists.

Accept Only the Genuine.

In the Clerk's Office of Appomattox Circuit Court October 26th, 1920.

Edna Saunders, Plaintiff against Defendant.

The object of this suit is to obtain a divorce from the defendant, by the plaintiff, on the grounds of desertion, by the husband, for three years to merge into a vinculo.

And an affidavit having been made and sworn to by the plaintiff, Edna Saunders, that she is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that she be removed to the State of New York, to reside in the City of New York, for a period of one year, after which time she may return to the State of Virginia, if she so desires.

And an affidavit having been made and sworn to by the defendant, John Lewis, that he is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that he be removed to the State of New York, to reside in the City of New York, for a period of one year, after which time he may return to the State of Virginia, if he so desires.
